I'm aware that running involves inherent risks, and I accept full responsibility for undertaking the risks involved in the Run for Rwanda (RFR), even those stemming from negligence. Risks include, but are not limited to, physical exertion, tripping, being jostled/trampled by other runners, vehicles on the race course, and unpredictable weather and course conditions. I fully waive any claims or legal action I or anyone representing me may have related to the RFR, against the International Anglican Church, the race directors and staff, sponsors, and volunteers, as well as anyone associated with these parties. I also consent to the use of my picture in any print or electronic media made in connection with the RFR. If the participant is under 18 years old, I as the parent or guardian authorize the child I'm registering to participate, and I agree to all terms outlined above.
